

Comic Book

Thomas Edward

♩ = 84

Guitar

C#m F# C#m

4 F# C#m F#

Turn the page of the comic book. Freeze frame

7 C#m F# C#m

on the girl with the eyes all full of disdain. Seen enough rattled of a little love will be enough to water down what your thinking of.

10 F# B E D

13 C#m F# C#m

Set a date for the prom you could have fooled me Wipe the floor

16 F# C#m F#m

slammed the door, beg for more for me. Step around step aside slip off the balcony.

19 B E D B E

Shred the remains of the furniture.

22 D C#m F#

Your comic book convictions

Comic Book

25 B E D B E

I dont expect.

Leaves you

28 D C#m F#m

with much respect.

Dropping names to the cops

With leather gloves with

31 C#m F#m C#m

with thier hands around your neck.

What the hell were you thinking of.

What you should

34 F#m B E D

have said what you should regret.

What should be left, what should be kept, what should be laid to rest.

37 E7 B E7

She said

You want it?

Oh really now.

40 B C#m

Your comic book convictions

43 F# B E D

I dont expect

46 B E D B E

Leaves you with much respect.

Jelousy and ridicule

49 F# E B E D
falacy and residue. I dont expect.

52 E7 b
She said You want it?

55 E7 Retpeat B
Oh really now.